

A Poetry Night with the Theme “Our Broken Hearts Will Heal”

The DTU Faculty of Humanities and Social Science held a Poetry Night themed “Our Broken Hearts Will Heal” to celebrate the seventh anniversary of its founding.

Tan Hoai Da Vu at the poetry night

Tan Hoai Da Vu is known not only as a journalist and writer but also as a famous poet in Danang, Quang Nam, and nationwide. His poems of life and love have touched young people's hearts. The more we read his poems, the more we respect his patriotism and belief in the future.

Students swap ideas with Mr. Tan Hoai Da Vu

In Tan Hoai Da Vu's love poems, we can feel his deep emotions poems such as "Our Broken Hearts Will Heal" and "Promise to Come Back to Hue".

Mr. Tan Hoai Da Vu said: "For me, writing poetry is an intimate experience, where I can express my sentiments and share my feelings. I hope that students of the DTU Faculty of Humanities and Social Science will contribute to conserving and developing the beauty of poetry."

The poetry night ended with an interesting poem "Our Broken Hearts Will Heal"

(Media Center)