

An Agreement with the Esuhai Company

On November 26th, DTU and the Esuhai Company signed a partnership agreement. Mr. Nguyen Xuan Lanh, a representative of the Board of Directors of Esuhai, Mr. Satomura Yusuke, Assistant General Director and Vice-Principal of the Kaizen Yoshida School, Mr. Dinh Thanh Tung, Director of the Vinanihon Company and chief representative of Esuhai in the Central region, Dr. Nguyen Tan Thang, DTU Vice-Provost, DTU students and lecturers attended the event.

The signing

Founded in 2006, the Esuhai Company operates in three fields, training and sending engineers to Japan to work, providing domestic labor services and investment consulting, with offices across the country and in Tokyo, Japan.

Mr. Nguyen Xuan Lanh said: “Our partnership will help DTU students and others in Danang to develop their career plans and accelerate economic and social growth in the Central Highlands of Vietnam. Students will be taught Japanese, the professional skills to prepare them for work in Japanese companies and learn about the most recent scientific achievements relevant to their studies, research and future careers.”

An Esuhai representative talks about job opportunities in Japan

Under the agreement, Esuhai and DTU will work together to offer courses in the Japanese language and culture for students at Danang universities, to train students to meet Japanese job requirements. Internship opportunities will also be offered in Japan.

DTU and Esuhai held a seminar entitled: “Orientation in Career Development through the 2016 Japanese Employment program”, which provided valuable information about jobs in Japan, including unemployment in Vietnam, Japanese employment requirements, how to meet them and the benefits gained of working in Japan.
