The agreement was signed by Mr. Ruben Ramirez, the Gameloft Producer Director and Mr. Nguyen Huu Phu, DTU Vice-Rector.

Under the agreement, Gameloft will partner with DTU in developing courses on Game Programming and Mobile Technology. DTU students will be able to visit and practice at the Gameloft Company. DTU will undertake the academic responsibility while Gameloft will commit to recruit DTU students when needed.

Mr. Ramirez said: “It is our pleasure to work with DTU. Currently, there are many DTU alumni working for our company. They are industrious and energetic. We hope to have more new recruits like them in the future”. The partnership will create more job opportunities for DTU students.
