Dr. Nguyen Ngoc Minh said: “On this 57th Anniversary, I hope that doctors' ethics will continue to develop and improve. Although the DTU Medical Department was only established a short time ago, lecturers and students have promised to study diligently to meet the standards of a fast-developing DTU”.

At the ceremony, students listened to some writings of Ho Chi Minh and the history of the Vietnamese Health Ministry from 1945 until now. A short quiz game and a dancing performance increased student interest. The meeting ended in the hope that doctors will become even more dedicated to their work in the future.
