During 18 years of construction and development, DTU has achieved much. With determination and energy, DTU staff and faculty have made constant hard efforts to overcome various obstacles and challenges to become the most prestigious private university in central region.

At the meeting, Mr. Le Cong Co reviewed the glorious victories of the Vietnam People's Army over the past 68 years, as well as taking pride in Vietnam's wartime revolutionary tradition. He also praised all DTU faculty and staff for their spirit in overcoming their difficulties to fulfill their mission.

This annual meeting has become an occasion for war veterans to recall unforgettable memories of their lives during the war. Following the revolutionary achievements of previous generations, DTU war veterans will always try their best to contribute to the development of DTU itself.
