DTU's performance wins first prize

With the title: “Praising the Party, Uncle Ho and the Love for our People, our Islands, our Motherland and our Nation”, the DTU team excelled in their three performances. In the modern dancing of “Danang Sac Mau”, DTU students looked very beautiful with their fine dresses and graceful movements. The song “Noi Dao Xa” by the musician The Sang was performed by DTU faculty and students, and was so moving that it touched the hearts of the audience. With a strong and expressive voice, a DTU lecturer, Mr. Nguyen Huu Hien, impressed everyone with the song “To Quoc Goi Ten Minh”, composed by musician Dinh Trung Can.

The musician Dinh Tham was one of the judges. He is a member of Vietnam Association of Musicians and Manager of Trung Vuong Theatre and said: “Though this is the first time this competition has been held, I feel very surprised and happy to see each of the performances. I was really impressed by them all, especially “Danang Sac Mau” by the DTU group. Their dancing was interesting and delightful. Duy Tan University was one of the top three teams, and its performances won several prizes.”
