

Graduation Ceremony 2010

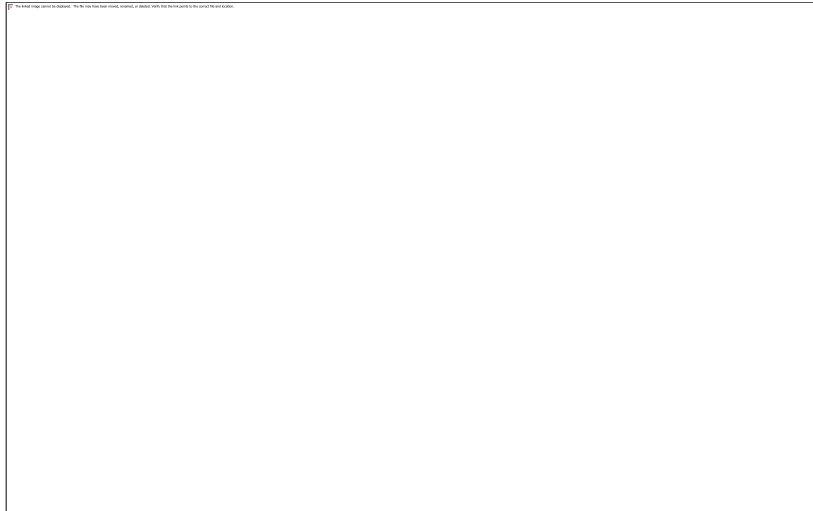

A solemn graduation ceremony was held at Trung Vuong Theatre, Danang city in the morning of 31st May, 2010 brought together more than 1,000 guests including graduates at Duy Tan university.

The ceremony took place in present of Mr Huynh Van Hoa-Director of Department of Education and Training, Danang city, Mr Le Cong Co-DTU' s President and Acting Rector, Board of Rectors, the whole staff, lecturers of the university, parents and specially the new graduates 2010 together with mass media in Danang city.

This initial credit-based training graduation course has marked the development of the university in implementing progressive programs worldwide.

At the ceremony, President Le Cong Co delivered a warm speech. He congratulated the students who finished their 4 or 5 years of study and praised the parents and lecturers who contribute a lot to the growing of the students. He advised the new graduates for self study as well.

Degree Award Ceremony went on orderly in the merry background music. New graduates with good and excellent results went to the stage excitedly and Vice Rector Vo Thanh Hai, Le Nguyen Bao and Le Duc Toan awarded certificates for them one by one.

Ms Truong Hong Tinh-the best student from Department of Business Administration expressed the gratitude to Duy Tan University for the opportunity on behalf of her fellow students and movingly said: “I would like to take this opportunity to express our deepest gratitudes to all lecturers and families, and promise to uphold our fine tradition of diligent studying, innovating and constantly taking full advantage of our knowledge to serve the society”

Graduation day is a very important day in the lives of graduates. The Degree will be a luggage of life helping graduates to become professional workers as well as good citizens, contributing to the industrialization and modernization of the country.

(Board of Website Editors)