

Meeting with Journalists on Vietnam Journalism Day

On the afternoon of June 18th 2009, DTU held a meeting with journalists to commemorate Vietnam Journalism Day on June 21st.

Attending in the meeting were members of the Management Board and representatives from local news agencies in Danang.

On behalf of the Management Board, Mr. Le Cong Co briefly talked about the founding and history of DTU, its achievements and future goals. He also emphasized that “These achievements are thanks to the efforts of the Government, DTU’s lecturers and staff, as well as the excellent contributions of the Danang news agencies in informing readers throughout Vietnam of DTU’s activities.”

Speaking at the meeting, Mr. Nguyen Han, a journalist from the Labor Press praised the relationship between DTU and news agencies in providing information. He also hoped that this relationship would be strengthened in the future.
