

Teacher's Day at the Sao Nam High School

Responding to an invitation from the Sao Nam High School, on November 11th 2010, the DTU Youth Union visited the school on occasion to celebrate "Vietnamese Teacher's Day".

At the ceremony, Mr. Pham Sy, Principal of the high school reviewed the history and traditions of "The Venerated Vietnamese Teacher" and, at the same time, he also thanked local government and agencies for their support in recent years.

The DTU student performance at Sao Nam HS

The DTU Youth Union dedicated four special performances of patriotism songs. On behalf of DTU, Mr. Pham Dang Quang conveyed his best wishes.

Over the past year, Sao Nam High School has achieved much. During this event, the Assault Team of the DTU Youth Union had the opportunity to meet teachers and students at the school. The ceremony was a good opportunity to tighten the excellent relationship between two educational institutions.
