At the event, the Faculty of Training, Administration and Research Applications reported on the results of the first semester of 2013-2014. The DTU Management Board acknowledged achievements in enrollment and the quality of training made in several faculties. Mr. Nguyen Huu Phu, DTU Vice-Provost, also announced the list of 244 groups and individuals with high performance in academic year 2012-2013, who were then presented with certificates of merit and gifts.

The event took on new excitement with a Karaoke competition. The DTU Board of Provosts presented first, second and third prizes and two consolation prizes for the best performances.

Distinguished Teacher Le Cong Co, DTU President and Provost, made a short speech at the end of the ceremony. “Over the past twenty years of development, DTU has achieved significant success in enrollment and international collaboration. In order to make 'The Duy Tan Dream - Let's Broaden Our Intellect for a Brighter Future' come true and build a foundation for sustainable development in the next 20 years, however, the DTU faculty and staff need to improve themselves in many ways. Working together with determination, we can build strategic plans to make the Duy Tan dream come true in the age of global integration.”
